This wonderful split level apartment is set in the heart of Bexleyheath. This property is a stones throw away from all amenities and a short walk to Bexleyheath train station which takes roughly 30 minutes to get to Central London.

Split over both the ground and lower ground floors of this impressive building. As part of a Victorian property, high ceilings and large rooms are a stunning feature throughout as you would expect. The living room is in the heart of the apartment and the hub of this home, where the separate kitchen across the hallway and offers more than the usual cupboard space for an apartment of this nature.

Both the master and second bedrooms are of a double size, with the master bedroom benefiting from the feature bay window and beautiful fireplace. The main bathroom is located on the lower ground floor and finished with a white-suite with shower over bath. The separate WC is on the main ground floor and accessed via the hallway.
