Not many words can even begin to explain this house. A touch of class is something we feel would be a good start in describing this house to you all. Offered to the market is this refurbished three/four bedroom extended terraced house. The property itself is in a cul de sac located close by to local transport links, schools and shops making the property appealing to those looking for a quiet location yet within close proximity to all locals amenities.

The ground floor from the moment you walk through the door is spacious. You are greeted with a large entrance hall from the moment you step over the threshold. To the left hand side you have a converted garage space which is currently used as an additional reception room, it could also be utilised as a study for those who work from home during the week. The main reception is a sensational space which has been opened out to create a large living room and dining area for friends and family to gather. The flooring throughout the ground floor has been tiled and finished with under floor heating making those cold nights warm on the feet of an evening. The kitchen offers the perfect space for the chef in the family to show of their skills in the kitchen. There are integrated appliances and granite worktops adding to the high specification of finish the current vendors have gone for. There is also a modern ground floor shower room.

The first floor has been re carpeted through the first floor where you will find three bedrooms with modern wardrobes and a family bathroom off the landing.

The garden is low maintenance with decking area to sit back and relax in the sun.
