Wansunt Road

BEXLEY

A stunning family home has become available in the highly sought after 'Wansunt Road' which is arguably the finest road in Bexley. It is within walking distance to the popular Bexley Village which has a variety of boutiques to fine dining and Bexley mainline train station.

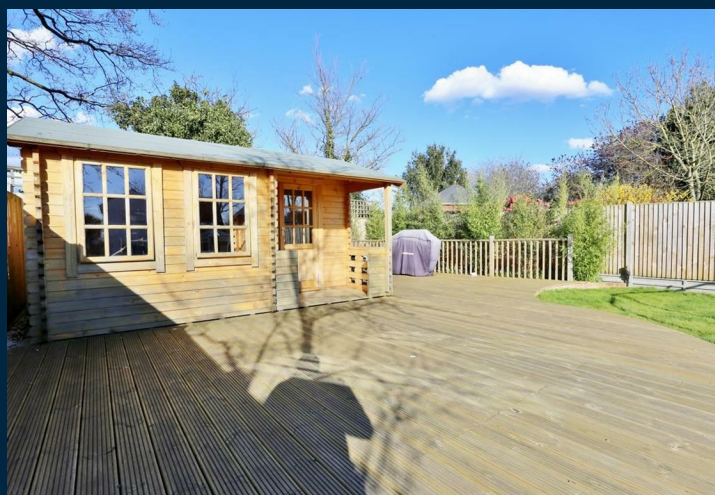

This property has been extensively refurbished throughout by the current owner with no stone being left unturned along the way and features many top of the range appliances including a fully installed 'Bang and Olufsen' music system. With its magnificent floor plan for modern family living, this would ideally suit those looking for that little something extra special with nearly 3000 square feet of pure luxury.

There is plenty of room to relax in this property as there is a spacious lounge, dining room, sitting room and conservatory, plus a study/bedroom five.

There are five bedrooms with two of these having en-suites along with an additional family bathroom. The master bedroom also has the added luxury of a walk in wardrobe.

To the rear of the house is mature garden with a summer lodge and sauna, in addition to a lovely large stone patio.

To the front of the house is a brick block driveway providing parking for four cars.
