close to home

Greenhithe combines idyllic country living and a commuters dream, with direct services into London Victoria in under an hour from the station and is only 0.6 miles away from the development. The immediate area also has well-connected bus services into Dartford, Gravesend and Bluewater Shopping Centre. Travelling by car is also not an issue with links to the M25, A2 and M20 just under a mile away and Ebbsfleet International Station only 1.5 miles way, making connections further afield a dream. Many excellent schools nearby, this means education is covered for all ages.
