Offers Over £440,000!

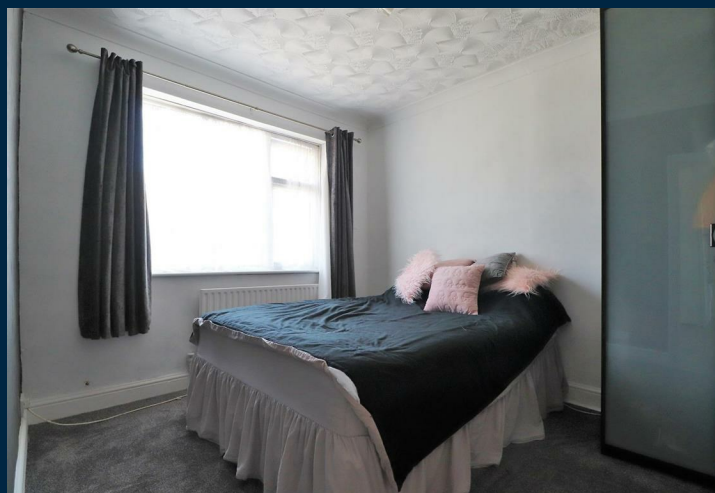

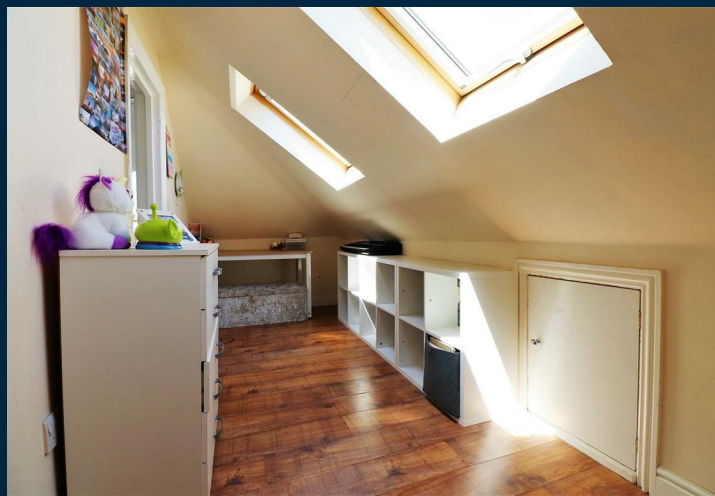

Situated in a quiet cul de sac is this extended four bedroom semi detached family bungalow. Having been remodelled by the current owners within their ownership throughout the years this is one not to miss out on. Shops, schools and even transport links are close by making this a perfect buy for those either downsizing or even scaling up .

The ground floor accommodation has been well thought out making an large open plan lounge/dining space for gatherings and picturesque views onto the garden. The kitchen is a fair size and perfect for keen chefs in the family to show of their culinary skills. A bathroom is off the hallway which is easily accessible especially in the summer months when friends and families gather over a BBQ. Two of the four bedrooms can be found at the front of the property, both of which are of a good size and offer space for wardrobes also.

Having had a loft conversion two more bedroom are located with another bathroom.

Are you a keen gardener? this large garden would appeal to those who love a large outside space. Mainly laid to lawn this is great for those who love to spend their days in the garden and with a patio area to sit and admire your work just makes this bungalow even more special.
